MIZZ MARTINEZ ANNOUNCES RELEASE OF “CAN U FEEL THE WAY I FEEL”

London – July 24, 2014: The artist previously known as Eva Martinez, featured vocalist on the Top 10 UK hit “Toca Me” by Fragma, announces the release of her new single “Can U Feel The Way I Feel” under the name Mizz Martinez. The single, a blend of eclectic, neo-progressive Pop/Rock, is planned for global release on September 14, 2014, on all digital platforms, download stores and streaming sites.

Eva originally composed the track for a project by Grammy-winning American house music DJ and producer David Morales. It was subsequently remixed into a more definitive rock tune with a greater emphasis on vocals. “This song is so hypnotic and sexy,” David recalls, “Eva is a true artist that’s very passionate about her art – it’s a pleasure to have worked with such talent.”

The accompanying music video, shot exclusively on location on the island of Ibiza, is in post-production stages and will be released in August 2014.

Mizz Martinez is already working on another solo track; one that she defines as “a collaboration made in heaven.” In the meantime, “Can U Feel The Way I Feel,” in the words of Mizz Martinez herself, is bound to “make you fall in love while questioning how we feel as a collective intelligence.”
